

Instructors' Training Program

Rev. 10/05

CANDIDATES POLICIES

1. Assist in as many Excellerated programs as possible, at least one a month.
2. Assist at any Excellerated Office in the world, and at special events such as conducting guest lectures, previews, heading enrollment teams, etc. The intention is to provide activities to facilitate the Candidate to practice being a leader, and the traits to be developed to become an Instructor.
3. Work towards fulfilling the Requirements listed in the ITP Guidelines & Seven Steps to Mastery.
4. Work on community service projects needed in our community or region.
5. Develop leadership skills and head up teams working on special Excellerated projects such as G.E.N.I. or WAKE presentations etc.
6. Attend as many educational programs that will support your Instructor's skills, including those offered by other organizations. We acknowledge that, in order for you to become an Instructor, different teachings will support your growth. Always apply them to your repertoire of teaching experiences.
7. Practice and be critiqued regularly on segments of Money & You.
8. As a Candidate, work closely with Excellerated Instructors during programs.
9. Maintain good communications with Excellerated Associated Offices. If there is a breakdown in communication, it is your responsibility to clear it up. If support is needed to clean up any miscommunications, you can contact your ITP Coordinator.
10. When ready to present sessions of Money & You, get approval by presenting the session to a M&Y Instructor or ITP Coordinator prior to being scheduled.
11. If not approved, return to practice, and schedule yourself for the next M&Y Program available in your area.

12. Only Instructor Candidates already committed fully to the program and/or scheduled to present segments will be seated at the "Instructors' Table" at programs and have access to training by Instructors and Program Directors.
13. Program Director Candidates will be seated in Logistics Area close to the Program Director running the Program.
14. Once you have committed to the Program, you must abide by the policies, and sign Program Agreements.
15. Excellerated reserves the right to invite guests at their discretion to the ITP Training and Meetings. These persons may be leaders, teachers or associates in similar/complimentary areas to Excellerated's. Recommendations of other guests by Members will be considered.
16. An ITP Coordinator will be assigned in your area to guide and support the Program. This person will be directed by and work directly with designated ITP Leader(s).

CANDIDATES MUST COMMIT TO AND BE ALIGNED WITH THE FOLLOWING:

- FINANCIAL STABILITY AND BUSINESS EXPERIENCE:

Have a stable long-term revenue activity that is ethical and generates sufficient income to maintain a style of living and quality of life congruent with the principles of Money & You and other Excelled Programs. To have earned the right via business/professional experience out of which the lessons and principles of the programs can be related in an impactful and credible manner.

- LEADERSHIP/SUPPORT

Have ability to operate with or without agreement and create to achieve desired results. It is understood that a good leader is first a good supporter/follower.

- APPEARANCE/ATTRACTIVENESS

Have awareness, appropriateness and congruence around attractive appearance; and be willing to receive feedback and correct.

- PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT

Realize that becoming an Instructor/Program Director for this organization requires an ongoing process of personal clearing to acknowledge cause in your life.

Recognize that not one organization/practice has all the answers. It is understood that one remains open and available to multiple clearing sources for ongoing personal development and to experience more joy, love and prosperity.

Understand that Excelled embraces all religions, spiritual beliefs and personal preferences and in none of the programs is any particular religion, practice or belief promoted. We acknowledge this is a personal choice.

INSTRUCTIONAL VIDEO TAPE DISTRIBUTION

To facilitate standard training and consistency of content, videos or excerpts of Money & You Programs are available for Instructor Candidates to study. The delivery must be exactly as is on the videos. Exact duplication is expected, except for stories as applied to principles being taught.

Reviewing and studying these tapes will radically shift your abilities to understand the materials, embody and apply them. Remember, this is not to be your interpretation of the videos. Please present the material as you see it, complete with gestures, intonations, facial expressions, etc.

Procedure for obtaining videos:

You must have committed to the Program, signed the Agreement and paid Membership fees.

First set of videos; Mastery and (to be determined by Leader).

Subsequent videos will be distributed as you are cleared to move on to other session of Money & You.

Videotapes will be sent in the format that you request (NTSC for North America; PAL for Asia Pacific).

These videos are for practice purposes only and are not to be duplicated or shown under any circumstances without written consent of Excellerated.
